- It will ask for all of your information: Credit card, email address, phone number.
 - If you have a PayPal account, it will want you to log in and pay that way
 - If you do not, at the end of the box, click the Create Account.
 - It does not sign you up for Paypal.
 - It saves your information so if you go in to pay again for another spot or in the future, it will save your information such as below.

The screenshot shows the PayPal checkout interface. At the top, there's a 'KG' logo and the 'PayPal' brand name. Below this, three payment methods are listed: 'Pay in full' (selected, $82.50 today), 'Pay in 4' (4 interest-free payments of $20.63), and 'PayPal Credit' (pay over time with a reusable credit line). Each method has a 'Terms' link. Below the payment methods is a 'Pay with' section showing a saved 'Business BIN' debit card ending in 'Debit *'. The amount '$82.50' is displayed next to the card. There's an 'Add card' button below the card. Further down, there's a 'Ship to' field with a blurred address and a dropdown arrow. At the bottom, the 'Order' total is '$82.50' with a dropdown arrow. A large blue 'Review Order' button is at the very bottom.

- It will send you a code to enter for security.
 - Enter the code and pay
- An email should be sent to your email address entered with a summary of your information.
